

5 Days Archeological Tour, Eritrea

Day 1 Asmara City Tour

- The Peak of St Mary Cemetery where one can see the whole of Asmara.
- The Medeber, where artisans recycle old tires and tins. They make shoes, oven, carpentry, red pepper mill. It was built circa 1912.
- The St Mary Church built circa 1900.
- The Grand Mosque built circa 1920s
- The Cathedral built circa 1920s
- The Post office built 1916 f) Albergo Italia built 1899.
- The Municipality established in 1890 H) Teatro Asmara built 1920s,
- Cinema Odeon, Cinema Roma built 1920s,
- Villa Roma built circa 1907 (now the residence of the Italian Embassy)

Overnight: Asmara

Day 2 Asmara - Massawa - Adulis - Zula - Massawa

From an altitude of 2400 meters to sea level in about 3 hours in to Massawa.

70 kilometers southeast, visit ancient Port of Adulis & Archeological site of Adulis.

Visit Zula near Annesley Bay on the Red Sea Coast.

These two ancient ports were a hub to the then vibrant trade that prevailed in the Middle East.

Overnight: Massawa

Day 3 Massawa – Green Belt – Asmara

45 kilometers visit the hot spring of Mai Wuuii, a gradual ascending will be enjoyed along the Green Belt. In the middle of the Green Belt there will be a spectacular view of one of Eritrea's dense forest and watching some birds adoring the trees flying here and there and gazelles grazing along the way.

Overnight: Asmara

Day 4 Asmara – Adikeyh – Kohaito – Senafe

Southeast visit Dekemhare & proceed to Adi Keyh. Excursion to the Archaeological site in Kohaito, an ancient Dam, Pillars, traces of Ancient Palace, Rock Paintings, Tombs and view of the Grand Canyon. Visit the old road that uses to connect the area to the port city of Massawa and the neighboring Tigray in Ethiopia.

Overnight: Adi Keyh

Day 5 Senafe – Metera – Segeneiti – Asmara

25 kilometers south from Adi Keyih visit Senafe, a border town with neighboring Ethiopia. Visit Archaeological site of an Ancient town in Belew kelew overshadow by the 2.5 meter erect Stele, demonstrating the ancient civilization in that area. Climb the Metera Mountain visit chains of the Ambassoira Mountains and then visit Ancient Church of St. Mary. Return back to Asmara enjoying many sightseeing's & views... Overnight: Asmara